St. Monica Catholic School is excited to start our 2nd annual Read-A-Thon!

The Read-A-Thon is motivating students to read more, both in the classroom and at home by pairing reading with a reward system.

Participating students will all receive an emoji bookmark, students receiving $15 in donations will receive an emoji drawstring backpack with an out of uniform pass and students receiving $40 in donations and reaching their reading goal will be entered into a drawing to win an Amazon Kindle.

Best of all, Principal Schommer will be "Locked-Up at Lunch" if we reach our $10,000 goal while all students will enjoy an out of uniform day. He will also volunteer 5 hours with the St. Monica Prison Ministry.

This year the Read-A-Thon will be funding the purchase of a 24 passenger bus. The bus will be used to transport an entire class of students to and from various field trips throughout the year.

Please join the other dedicated parents of St. Monica students by supporting this years Read-A-Thon.
