

PTO Minutes for October 3, 2017

8:00-Call to order

Prayer offered by Mr. Schommer

In attendance: Wendy Escobar Avila, Michelle Washington, Joe Delamater, Laura Valle, Joe Acklin, Eric Schommer, Melissa Lynch, Shanette Gibbs, Stacey Hoaglin, Kelly Korobov, Kimberly Brownridge, Karen Reed

-Old Business

Grandfriend's Day had good attendance and had lots of positive feedback. Book fair was well attended. Customers were patient and kind.

Cookbook update-need recipes submitted Kim Brownridge chair

Trunk or Treat-Michelle Washington and Kristen Palmer chairs. Sam's Club will help donate some of the things we need.

-Read-a-thon kicks off on Nov 1st. Having good progress with the website-it should be ready. In need of volunteer to lead and organize all aspects of individual and class prizes.

-Pacers night-Wendy Escobar collecting information. Tickets to include: hot dog, drink, chips, and hat.

-New Business

Donut Day-Dec 1st. 6:45-7:30. Need PTO members to setup and serve donuts.

Also in need of sign up sheet for plates, cups, coffee cups, napkins, milk, orange juice, and creamer. 1 service hour given for every $10 in donated goods.

Principal's Report-Hurricane Relief-want to partner with other Catholic schools in the area. Mr Schommer wants to thank our teachers for stepping up when he was absent. Also discussed budget in regards to Parrish having to let 3 staff members go for financial reasons. Currently we have only 6.5% of parishioners contributing regularly at Mass. we need to teach our children by example to give.

Auction report- chairs Stacey Hoaglin and Kelly Korobov report they are still in planning stages.

Financial report-"looks good"

Corporate sponsorship-$5000+

-Room parents are all signed up

Upcoming events:

-October 23-cookbook recipe deadline

-October 27-6-8PM Trunk or Treat

-November 1-Read-a-thon kickoff

Next Meeting November 7 in library