Educational Information

She graduated from the University of South Florida with a BA in Elementary Education and Early Childhood Education. Mrs. Exline is currently enrolled in the Master's Program for Early Childhood Education through the Ball State Distance Learning Program.

Professional Information

Mrs. Exline began teaching in 1995 and has taught Kindergarten, First Grade and Third Grade. She was also a Phonics and Reading Instructor with the Student Services Department before the creation of the Preschool Program at St. Monica.

Personal Information

Mrs. Exline has two daughters, Sarah and Hannah, who are students at St. Monica. Her husband, Mr. Exline teaches Jr. High Social Studies here as well. In her free time she enjoys reading and scrapbooking, although most of her time is spent hanging out with her family. She enjoys traveling and gardening also. If she had to choose a different career she would want to plan birthday parties, but for right now, she is more than happy to spend her days at St. Monica.
